Prayer Guide 2023

Thank you for joining us in prayer for our church and ministries. Choose a ministry & location where you'll begin to pray. Stay and pray for 10 minutes and then move to 3 other areas to pray. The location host is noted after each ministry location. Please take this guide home and pray for these ministries throughout the year. Thank you.

In addition to the prayer points listed below, pray for each physical space and the ministry that happens in/outside of the buildings God's grace has provided.

Children's Building: Children's Ministry (Lora Garcia)

- For the children's well-being, homelife, spiritual life and emotional life
- For needed Volunteers (Sunday school leaders, Children's church leaders)
- For Safety and well-being for every child and family that participate
- For the children to receive the Lord as their Savior
- For the Awana ministry. Pray for more volunteers and leaders so that program may grow and children will be reached with the Gospel.
- For our nursery and preschool program

Fellowship Hall: Members and Attenders of the Church (Chuck Witcher)

- For God to strengthen our sense of community within the church
- For unity and against division within our church
- For Friendships to be built
- For all members/attenders to grow spiritually
- For the health and wellness of our members/attenders
- For God to lead each member to use their gifts to serve the Lord and His church
- For all Sunday School classes and leaders & for every member to be part of a small group

Activity Building: Upwards Program (Monti and Brent Bettis)

- For Monti and Brent as they lead this ministry, may they have wisdom and guidance to reach the community
- For each coach and referee and all those who work hard each week for the Upward program success
- For each family that enters the building, that they are greeted and feel welcomed
- For the devotionals-the speakers and those hearing
- For God to be glorified in all that happens
- For unchurched families to find connections at Macedonia

Student Building: Middle, High School, and College Ministry (Meredith Clark & Debbie Peacock)

- For Jess Argo (and his family) as he begins to lead our students
- For unity and healthy friendships among the students
- For growth of the ministry in faith and numbers
- For strength and protection against worldly pressures/temptations
- For the students to be a light in this world and to encourage one another
- For students to lift up the ministry among each other
- For the students to read the Word of God and grow in Him

Chapel: Sick and Lost in our Community (Dexter Heard)

- For all those who are sick
- For the LORD to bring new families in our community to Macedonia
- For those that have yet to hear God's voice and trust Jesus as their Savior
- For the LORD to raise up more Bible-teaching churches in Coweta County
- For Macedonia to be a haven for the lost, so we may show them the love of the LORD
- For the missions ministries of Macedonia to be effective, locally, regionally, and globally

Worship Center: Leadership Team (Mary Ann and Gerald Denney)

- For the spiritual and family lives of the Staff
- For the unity of leadership - staff, volunteers, deacons, trustees, and committees
- For God to continue to lead and direct them in their ministries within the church
- For God to protect them against discouragement and all works of the enemy
- For members to rise up as leaders, allowing God to shine His light through them, to help those that are lost

Stage Steps: Music Ministry (Kim Green)

- For Kim Green as she begins leading Macedonia's music ministry
- For each member of the music ministry; their growth in faith and their unity with one another
- For good health within the worship team
- For God to raise up new musicians
- For people to join the choir and for God to work in mighty ways within choir members

Choir Room: Women's and Men's Ministry (Kelly and Matthew Myers)

- For a culture of discipleship to take root in our congregation
- For the ladies to grow in their faith and unity with each other
- For the ladies to reach out and grow the ministry
- For men to join in prayer and mutual support in growing and living out their faith
- For the weekly men's discipleship groups to be kingdom-focused and to grow
